

MAHARASHTRA NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY, NAGPUR

About the University

Maharashtra National Law University, Nagpur (MNLU, Nagpur) was established by the Government of Maharashtra by way of an enactment known as the Maharashtra National Law University Act (Maharashtra Act No. VI of 2014). Hon'ble Shri Justice S.A. Bobde, Judge, Supreme Court of India is the Chancellor of the University. It is a residential university engaged in teaching and promoting research in law and allied disciplines. The university has been granted permission by the UGC to issue Degrees, Diploma etc., under Section 22 of the UGC Act 1956. The process for necessary affiliation under Section 2(F) of the University Grants Commission Act 1956 and the Bar Council of India (BCI) has already begun. The university is also a member of the Association of Indian Universities (AIU).

The university is the nineteenth National Law University established in the country located in the Orange City of Nagpur and the eighteenth in the CLAT pool. The objectives of the university are manifold mainly to advance and disseminate learning and knowledge of law and legal processes and their role in national development; to develop sense of responsibility within the students and research scholars; to serve society in the field of law by developing skills in regard to advocacy, legal services, legislation, law reforms and the likes; to organize lectures, seminars, symposia, conferences and capacity building programmes; to promote legal knowledge and to make law and legal processes efficient instruments of social justice and development; to promote traditional, cultural, legal and ethical values with a view to promote and foster the rule of law and the objectives enshrined in the Constitution of India; and to liaise with institutions of higher learning and research in India and abroad. The university has established twenty-eight centres for advanced legal studies and research to address the socio-legal issues and challenges and to conduct cutting edge research on thriving issues of law, social science and humanities. Some of these centres have already started working on offering courses, conducting seminars, conferences, and training programmes for the identified target groups.

The university has inked Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with prominent law universities of the country for the purpose of academic collaboration that will encompass exchange of students and members of faculty between the two universities, etc. The university has inked MoU with National Law School of India University, Bangalore; National Law University, Delhi; Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab; The Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai, Mumbai; Gujarat National Law University, Gandhinagar; National Law University and Judicial Academy, Assam; and Maharashtra National Law University, Aurangabad.

The university has taken various steps towards welfare of the students such as providing in campus health centre with a male and female doctor/s, career counsellor, personality developer and medical insurance to all the students for which the university bears the premium from its own sources. The students are expected to act according to the reputation of the university and be sensitive towards the surroundings in their behaviour, dressing and manners. University strictly prohibits actions such as ragging, sexual harassment, etc. and view these actions as serious issues for disciplinary proceedings leading to expulsion from the university, if proved.

Infrastructure of the University

At present, the university is functioning from a rented premise of around 38,000 sq. ft. built-up area in Khapri, Wardha road, Nagpur. The hostel for the students is two kilometres away from the present campus, and the two are linked by the university transportation. The university and hostel are fully Wi-Fi enabled. The sanctioned permanent campus of the university is located at Waranga, Nagpur (rural) on a sprawling 60 acres of land provided by the Government of Maharashtra, about 12 kilometres from the Nagpur Airport.

The proposed campus will have a unique blend of state-of-the-art facilities, student-centric academic and non-academic facilities and barrier-free design. The campus will be sustainable and self-sufficient to the fullest possible extent, with a strong focus on sustainable site planning, energy efficiency and conservation, water efficiency and management, waste management, sustainable building materials and indoor environmental quality.

Library Facilities

Within a very short span of time, the university's library has acquired physical copies of over 15,000 titles. It has received various donations for its development. The university also has access to various physical and virtual databases.

Academic Activities

Presently the university offers B.A.LL.B. (Hons.) Five-Year Integrated Degree Course and One-Year LL.M. Postgraduate Degree Course. It began the Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) Programme from May 2017.

Students' Activities

The university promotes and sponsors various curricular and extracurricular activities for the students, including those organised by premium law schools in India. A team of mooters has won the 2nd Surana & Surana and RGNUL International Law Moot Court Competition 2018. The team also won the best Memorial and Speaker awards. A contingent of 23 students acquired 25 medals in various categories in the annual sports fest of RGNUL Patiala, 'ZELUS' 2018, including trophies for Second Runners Up and Best Sportsmanship Spirit.

University Activities

All Saturdays at the University are earmarked for value addition lectures, interactive sessions, panel discussions and various guest lectures by experts from legal and non-legal backgrounds. These include two endowment memorial lecture series in the memory of late Shri G.L. Sanghi, Former Senior Advocate, Supreme Court of India and late Shri Justice S.M. Daud, Former Judge Bombay High Court. The university in association with WIPO, Geneva and RGNIPM, Nagpur organised 'WIPO India Summer School' in the months of November 2017 and July 2018. It also launched the 'Ram Jethmalani Merit-cum-Need Scholarship' in July 2018. The university released its Flagship Journal 'Contemporary Law Review' in the year 2017. The second issue of the Journal on 'Teaching Methods and Techniques' was released in April 14, 2018 by Hon'ble Shri Justice Jasti Chelameswar, Former Judge, Supreme Court of India, Hon'ble Shri Justice S.A. Bobde, Judge, Supreme Court of India and the Chancellor of the university and Hon'ble Shri Justice B.R. Gavai, Judge, Bombay High Court in the presence of faculty members and students.

Undergraduate Programme

B.A.LL.B. (Hons.) Five-Year Integrated Degree Course

The academic curriculum of the university is designed as per the recommendations of Curriculum Development Committee Report (CDCR)-University Grants Commission (UGC) and the Bar Council of India (BCI) guidelines, bringing it in consonance with trends of globalization, pluralism and social integration. It promotes interdisciplinary approach and focuses on clinical legal education, teaching students to appreciate practical socio-economic and legal issues and help society at large.

The university follows a semester system with six working days in a week, 90 working days in a semester; and 180 days in an academic year in addition to examinations. It introduced a Choice-Based Credit System. Students are required to earn a total of 200 credit spread out over the course of five years and can earn extra credits from courses offered by external experts. Further, the course structure is designed to impart 42 (forty-two) compulsory papers, 02 (two) clinical papers and 06 (six) optional papers. A wide range of optional papers will also be offered to the students. The scheme of examination for the course includes an end-semester examination for 50 marks; mid-semester examination for 20 marks; and a research project for 25 marks. 5 marks are allotted for attendance. The academic performance of the students on continuation basis shall be evaluated on a 10 (ten) point scale with corresponding grade values.
