ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY:

Maharashtra National Law University, Nagpur (MNLU, Nagpur) is established by the Government of Maharashtra by way of enactment known as the Maharashtra National Law University Act (Maharashtra Act No. VI of 2014). Hon'ble Shri Justice S.A. Bobde, Chief Justice of India is the Chancellor of the University. It is a residential university engaged in teaching and promoting research in law and allied disciplines. Its authorities are making the greatest possible efforts to bring up state-of-the-art facilities at the University. The University has a competent team of faculty and staff, who are qualified, experienced, committed, and full of zeal to create an institution of excellence in legal education in the country. The University has been recognized by the University Grants Commission (UGC) and the Bar Council of India (BCI), New Delhi. It is also a member of Association of Indian Universities (AIU), New Delhi. The University is the nineteenth National Law University established in the country located in the Orange City of Nagpur and the eighteenth in the CLAT pool. The objectives of the University are manifold, mainly, to advance and disseminate learning and knowledge of law and legal processes and their role in national development; to develop a sense of responsibility within the students and research scholars; to serve society in the field of law by developing skills related to advocacy, legal services, legislation, law reforms and the like; to organize lectures, seminars, symposia, conferences and capacity building programmes; to promote legal knowledge and to make law and legal processes efficient instruments of social justice and development; to promote traditional, cultural, legal and ethical values with a view to promote and foster the rule of law and the objectives enshrined in the Constitution of India; and to liaise with institutions of higher learning and research in India and abroad.

ABOUT THE ADR SOCIETY:

The ADR Society of MNLU Nagpur was established in 2018 to hone the interests and skills of students in the field of Negotiation, Mediation & Arbitration. Under the aegis of ADR Society, a variety of events such as seminars, workshops, guest lectures, panel discussions and ADR Competitions have been conducted. The Society has also successfully hosted the National Rounds of Louis M. Brown & Forrest S. Mosten International Client Consultation Competition, 2019. To couple the learnings at the University with the practicalities of the field, the students are encouraged to carry out field studies and participate in various Negotiation, Mediation and Client Consultation Competitions across the country.

Additionally, to further research in the field of ADR, the University has two compulsory courses of ADR for its undergraduate students and offers two PG Diploma Courses in Alternative Dispute Resolution & Family Dispute Resolution.

As a testament to the Society's success, students under its leadership have won awards at renowned competitions such as 1st RGNUL Sports and Entertainment Law Mediation Competition, Lex Infinitum International Mediation Competition, 3rd Amity National ADR Tournament, 2019 & 3rd Treaty Negotiation Competition, KIIT Bhubaneswar (2018) along with other notable achievements. Our coming conference on Mediation is just one of the several initiatives that the ADR Society has undertaken in promoting ADR in India and we look forward to hosting you.
